

A Broadcast Service of Pittsburg State University

Sunday through Thursday Evening

Jazz with Bob Parlocha
Bob Parlocha provides a first-rate introduction to mainstream jazz. Monday - Thursday at 7pm and Sunday at 10pm.

Friday Evening

Marian McPartland's Piano Jazz
Legendary pianist Marian McPartland visits with a stellar line up of jazz artists for an hour of conversation & improvisation. Friday at 7pm.

Rhythm Sweet & Hot
Audiences are entertained by this program as it captures the essence of musical culture from the 1920s to the 1940s. Friday at 8pm.

Riverwalk Jazz
Riverwalk Jazz is America's best-loved public radio series about pre-WWII classic jazz. Friday at 9pm.

World Café
World Café is the public radio showcase for music with an eclectic blend of indie rock, folk, blues, and world music. Friday at 10pm.

Saturday Evening

American Routes
American Routes presents a broad range of American music, from blues and jazz to Cajun and Zydeco. Saturday at 7pm.

The Bluescast
The Bluescast, originating from the KRPS Studios, covers many styles of blues and features listener requests. Saturday at 9pm.

Sunday Evening

Folk Sampler
From the Foothills of the Ozarks, The Folk Sampler is a syndicated program of folk, traditional, bluegrass & blues. Sunday at 7pm.

Thistle & Shamrock
On The Thistle & Shamrock, award-winning radio host Fiona Ritchie explores evolving music from Celtic roots in Europe and North America. Sunday at 8pm.

Putumayo World Music
The Putumayo World Music Hour takes listeners on a weekly journey through the music of many different cultures. Sunday at 9pm.